BWCSL Week 2 Division 1 Results

Posted by Ripper at 23:10 3/9/2002.

Another great night of competition in the Barrysworld Counter-Strike League, here are tonights division 1 results:

- 6K 13 - 1 Ne.uk
- dNC 13- 10 SA
- SO19 13 - 4 erm:cs
- ONE 13 - 4 VETS
- FCC Default Win Over NS

Another solid performance from 6K keeps them joint top, while SA were again unlucky not to take the win, after a quality performance against dNC. SO19 earned an impressive win over erm:cs to keep them in contention, and after a week 1 loss to FCC, ONE bounced back well.

Click here to view the full divisional results as they're added.

	Culexus 08:13 4/9/2002	iron thats so true.. and btw, i thought i would try post some bugs in cs... if you load of tfc/sven/fa/any other s hl mod(exc cs) and go to console and connect to cs through that console you will get some sort of attribute from that game to cs.. i noticed that the recoil thourgh tfc/sven are different, fa has some nice colt explosion color.. and to get super bright walls without configging or using a program simply go to cs console... type "map a1a0" (im not sure if thats correct but its the name of the hl intro.. anyway.. when you get into the intro type "brightness 99999999" in console. reload map, then connect to a cs server. I've been told by some people(fcc) that it doesnt work, so they said they'd stick with their configs and OGC. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Rogue1 10:34 4/9/2002	Yeah, yeah, I know dust isn't popular these days. Mind you, I do wish somebody would point me at the exact moment when dust went from being "OMG R0X0R l33t" and the only map that a load of clans would play to something that people don't want to touch with a barge-pole. Not that it bothers me, since I've always hated the map personally :) Anyway, with any luck, this should be the last season where we have to use dust. In the past, I've shied away from custom maps for organisational reasons, but this season, we're going to experiment with using de_clan2_fire instead of piranesi for division 1 (they should have had a mail from me about this). If this works, then fire will probably become the long-term replacement for dust. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Smittins 10:45 4/9/2002	dust wasnt so bad for CO rules imo, but its too linear for mr12 [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	[SA]LoB 11:59 4/9/2002	Erm or maybe we played well against dNC. It was a close game again. Maybe ppl will actually realise that we present a challenge to them and were not a bunch of n00bs. SA is one of the oldest clans still around in the UK and we have a lot of experience behind us. We worked hard praccying dust with SO19 and it nearly paid off. In the end dNC pulled off a win by a short margin. They were not afk or any of the other rediculous ideas that have been put forward. Now please give us the credit we deserve and not slagging us off. 	m0rph Infinity-eSports 12:57 4/9/2002	ben-, BWCSL is actually a fing well organised league. Looking around there isnt a single competition that has retained any credibility bar CB eurocup and opencup over the last few years. BWCSL has stuck it out and has some decent clans in there. the dNC v SA result shows that it isnt just gonna be a 1 horse race this season and I wouldnt be surprised to see other clans coming through knowing that dNC are beatable. who cares if dust is ancient? its still officially the most popular counter-strike map pld on 20% of servers at any given time. Give rogue credit he has to put up with ckbaskets like u coming out with unconstructive critisms out of yer star shaped s stained arse pipe that is infact yer mouth. 	Ben- 13:14 4/9/2002	sorry can i re-state what i said /me ROFLMFAO!!! [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	a1ex^ 13:15 4/9/2002	SA, the fact that dust is not on the cpl map rotation meant dNC obviously had no tactics and played it like they would an FFA, this coupled with your vigorous practice on it meant the result did not give a true representation of the massive margin in skill between the two clans. had the match been on a cpl map the scoreline would be quiet different. another possible reason is that you dragged them down to your level, which can sometimes happen. it is a one horse race because the other clans in the league are se. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Genics thed0n 13:26 4/9/2002	can u not say gg? seeing u won and u dont need tot ell the other clan there s and u did no practice etc etc

		lame [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Ben- 13:29 4/9/2002	alex, you forget that skill is the most important factor in Counter-Strike. Tactics is advantageous not critical. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	MadSpunk Last Chance 13:49 4/9/2002	The fact that [SA] had practiced dust and dNC hadn't, is dNC's loss... I think even if dNC had been playing ffa (being top shooters), SA did one hell of a good job pulling off a score line like that. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Muzz 13:52 4/9/2002	To clear things up, 1st half of SA game(us as CT) we won 10-2 and then as T we were pretty much ffaing just to get the 3 rounds we needed, not meaning SA didnt play well when I say that because they showed us that u cant take anything for granted even if u do win one half 10-2 1st half - 10-2 to dnc as CT 2nd half - 8-4 to SA as CT Score was also 14-10 btw. Well played to them all and gg, no moaning as usual, top clan. And to annum, wtf have u ever achieved in cs except being the most hated man in your home community due to your fing depressingly offensive attitude towards everything and everybody. I really hope to see u at a LAN sometime, but tbh i doubt youd find a clan to take you to one. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Genics thed0n 13:55 4/9/2002	that wasnt annum, not his hostmark :o [Comment: Report IP: Logged] ferrers Sniper's Alley 14:12 4/9/2002	Well said Muzz. I am a realist and know for a fact that as a unit dnc are out of SA's league. And hence when I saw the map schedule and saw we had dnc on dust I was a very relieved man. Simply because the fact is it was never likely to be high on dnc's map practice list. And even though people are congratulating us that we did so well DNC beat us fair and square.

	SA in its current form are unproven on LAN. So tbh the guy who said we were s on it is entirely right. But end of the day we will get better. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
Ripper Rush! 14:15 4/9/2002	When dnc reached 13 SA had 10, so the last round was irrelevant [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
Smittins 14:17 4/9/2002	actually whenever i play SA on pub i always find they're hard to hit yet they swear they run default 8 guess its cos they've been around for years ;) :P [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	[SA]Liquid 16:21 4/9/2002	when did it like become omg SA suck? i am pretty sure hundreds of old skool CS players see/saw SA as the #1 UK clan up untill version 1 where we disbanded and later on came back only to play for fun... there is where we proolly went downhill now (6 months later)we're trying to get back to the top, but give us some fing time. its not like we know eachother like we did in the old SA. and CS has changed drastically, tactic/gameplay/netcode wise. Its like whenever we allmost beat a clan like dNC u all go omg dnc must have gone FFA, tbh they didnt. they rushed together they tried to pick us off etc. things which apparently didnt work cause of our improved teamplay. Bah am writing bulls now and i'll proolly get flamed, but its gay to read ppl saying SA suck only cause we went from #1 in UK to something lower.
	[SA]Liquid 16:21 4/9/2002	where = were
	Eagle 16:23 4/9/2002	Many of the config stuff i see is mainly server side, but some people have 99 fps, cl_cmdrate 30, and complain bullets dont register. Try changing the cl_cmdrate to 100 or something similiar.

		[Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	[SA]Liquid 16:24 4/9/2002	SA used to be able to go in a clanwar run/rush shoot and kill ppl... think all of u old skool ppl remember rushing on ALL maps on ALL public server, shooting and killing ppl and getting scores like 65/2 in 30 minutes. things which now are impossible (ofcourse not for ppl like AnNuM as he's the GOD). erm point of me writing this? dunno tbh [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Messiah Game2XS.Monkey Magic 16:26 4/9/2002	I cant remember thinking SA were #1 but you were up there with the likes of bh when Verp/Jobbie/etc joined up. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	[SA]Liquid 16:29 4/9/2002	and that cfg story starts ping me off too. couple of months ago nobody said anything about u have to use this cl_updaterate or that cl_cmdrate or that ex_interp setting. it was all standard. only thing u had to change was rate setting and pushlatency. the rest stayed default up untill NiP or SK or Z cant recall started using that ex_cmmds in CPL and later on bds explained it. tbh from my eyes cfg means s. its more in your head. i play with ex_interp 0.025 and yes u'll all find that cheating lame etc whatever i dont care. its how i like playing CS and why change it? if u shoot and miss some guy u all go OMG CFG HAX CHEATER FINISH CFG HOE instead think of things U might have done wrong. eg u missed, u lagged out, server didnt sent a package i dont know. but why all the fuss about a cfg which according to me means didly squat. its impossible to go test it out. eg by playing with rate 10 updaterate 15 and cmdrate 14 and then an ex_interp of 0.1 cause when u go in u might play bad but u cant know how u would have pld with your own standard cfg.

	iron 16:55 4/9/2002	lol its quite funny when everyone changes their interp to 0.025 or whatever, when thats actually a s value to use, youre only using it for the sake of it, even valve admit that the best ex_interp value is 0.1, and they dont know why the CPL uses 0.05, but theres no need to worry, this command is most likely to be locked in the next release, or at the very least, the range will be decreased, to 0.05 - 0.1, happy configging. Anyone know if the demos avail, i wanna see my spray when i took out 3 dNC's :D, with like 10 bullets. gg dNC ;0 [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	X 18:36 4/9/2002	Facts 1) [SA] have probably near 300-500 matchs behind them and being old school a lot of them were on dust 2) [SA] Players HAVE GOOD AIM so would not be as outgunned as everyone making out 3) [SA] are lovely and not 1337 h4x0rs who go on all day about how many n00bs they "pwned" that day. 4) I haxored tep through a wall gg me :) see you all at i14 i hope(z0rz) Lewis [Comment: Report IP: Logged] fcc- -JediBitch 18:51 4/9/2002	Maybe im just new,but i used to use a 'h4x' cfg (incidentally it was toomys lol) now i use default with CPL rates and i CANNOT tell the difference. Is it just that i duno wot to look for? is it mebe that all this cfg stuff is just another excuse to lob at some1 with calling em cheats ? I play on WWCL and normal servers,and again tbh i cant tell any difference. It wud be nice if some1 (who actually knows wot they r talkin about) cud explain how using a 'h4x' cfg gives u an advantage. thx [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	ryano theb0g 19:47 4/9/2002	I played for ne.uk and 6K played a lot lot better than I expected (from when I last played them ages ago). Especially penn0r, as terrors maybe you should try and get a sogamed admin to load up your demo. What was your end score 25-4 or something? On a more of a whinging note Dust is a bit of a dodgy map to play 5 v 5 mr on, especially against a clan that has strong tic tacs. 6K were doing bunks into the sniper nest the lot :P [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	DArtagnan Infinity-eSports	The simpel fact is when it comes to the proper lans which

	19:51 4/9/2002	all use the same setup for every1, all this big shot on-line teams will be s as usual and their excuse will be "we dont have lan experience...blah blah blah" SA were never no.1 in the UK, in was bh/4K, again, look at all the lan results during that period, i dont think SA won anything, and the 1 game with the old school SA vs 4K on lan was a complete raping by 4K. 	Mani 21:17 4/9/2002	Sigh, why does everything have to degenerate into lame crap like 'we Ownz j00'. Repeat after me, It's only a game, go on, say it 5 times and you might start to beleive it, honest. Back on topic, I Missed to 6k game, but from what I hear from all the ne.uk lads, 6k were excellent, played lads. As far as cfg hax, that's the current favourite moan, it'll be something else next month, I can assure you we all use default or cpl, the only thing we change are our rates. Believe what you will, if you can't hit people, it's more than likely the server, your connection or your own rates. This is exactly why online cs is a joke, this is where I agree with Dartagnan in a way, the only fair place to play cs is on a lan.

Now can we keep it civil please? The UK community is such an unfriendly place atm, everyone thinks they "Own" everyone else and if they lose the other clan were clearly "hax0rs". Grow up guys, please.

also dart, 6K are an internet clan, i doubt they intend on going to any LAN so they probably would be s on LAN, its not the same case for ppl like erm and ONE who actually aim to play at LAN, therefore, they play better/similar on LAN than inet.

since 6k's mini re-form last month i heard they were intending on going to LANs in the future. But they are an international clan so its harder for them compared to others.

We'll be going to as many big lan events as we can now that we have a reformed team of 6 players, we have 2 dutch guys and it is difficult flying them over but believe me when I say we will make the effort and we will try our best at the lans :)

But dArt ur being a bit of a cun7 really, we have never had the chance to take lans seriously, get to gether for practices etc. So judging us as a clan on our LAN performance is just stupid. We're not a LAN clan and will probably never be one, cause for various reasons most of us can't attend them regularly. Kindly take your head from up your arse d4rt and take a look at your team next time your at a lan. Cause tbh I don't think I've seen a more attractively challenged team. BWCSL Week 2 Division 1 Results

Posted by Ripper at 23:10 3/9/2002.

Another great night of competition in the Barrysworld Counter-Strike League, here are tonights division 1 results:

- 6K 13 - 1 Ne.uk
- dNC 13- 10 SA
- SO19 13 - 4 erm:cs
- ONE 13 - 4 VETS
- FCC Default Win Over NS

Another solid performance from 6K keeps them joint top, while SA were again unlucky not to take the win, after a quality performance against dNC. SO19 earned an impressive win over erm:cs to keep them in contention, and after a week 1 loss to FCC, ONE bounced back well.

Click here to view the full divisional results as they're added.

Junks Sniper's Alley 17:43 5/9/2002	Aragorn - was 6 months m8 :) Dart - No we have never been the UK's #1 clan I dont think, but we weren't close off either. As Scrappy said, the TWL LAN had 3 SA members plus 3 m8s (was 6v6) and we were there for fun. Yes we got raped, hardly surprsing. But I damn sure drunk more beer than any of u poofs.. so there :) Mani - Bloody well said m8, as ever. I've sorted of dropped out of the CS community but just reading this makes me realise nothings changed, but I suppose a community which has a large majority of teenage lads in is going to be a little immature I suppose..... Configs - I wouldnt know, I'm a default, dont think it matters much tbh. I thinks its a mistake to bracket a clan as 'default' or not as every player is different within a clan. goes back to sleep [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
