WCG UK CS Qualifiers - Results

Posted by Myers at 17:39 5/10/2002.

After a closely fought tournament Uninspired and erm secured their places in tomorrow's finals with victories on de_nuke (9 - 1 & 9 - 1) over Snipers Alley and Twisted:Reality respectively. Expect a full report to appear on this website sometime next week.

Stu of infinity-esports had this to say:

Uninspired look like their former selfs, whereas erm clearly carried by WaZ all the way through

This leaves the lineup for tomorrow as:

- Infinity-eSports
- ClanONE
- Genesis
- Cybercuts2
- Omg!
- Uninspired
- erm
- 6K

I would hope to see as many of you as possible here tomorrow to support your favourite team. A list of all todays brackets can be found here.

18:51 5/10/2002

i dont really know where to start this moan, cuz theres so much of it to be done. First of all the tournament area in earls court exhibition centre or whatever must be the loudest place in london atm.
You couldnt even hear people you were speaking to right next to you, let alone
whats happening thru ur headphones.
When we got there we found at that 32 clans had apparantly signed up, so they had to shorten the rounds to MR8, which was pretty pathetic to say the least, awps were pretty much non-existant in this tourny, cuz you could only eco once before you fell too far behind on rounds.
Organisation wise it seemed ok, games started pretty much on time. Then we get to the PCs, first of, windows xp..needs no explanation, i use sens 1.3
at home, i was using 3.5 there, and it was still slower :/, then you have the fact that you cant turn mouse acceleration off on some pcs..but u can on others, FPS was an amazing 60-99
depending on what PC u were on. None of the PCS had andy kind of mouse drivers on whatsoever, so that kinda got everybody into a sticky situation, i had to borrow some1 elses drivers in the end, so then theres the admins, they seemed pretty cool at first, but then suddenly ud heard ' OK 2 RESTARTS AND GO' while everybody was still setting up, in the first game my mouse movements wouldnt measure alot of the time, and i changed my name to 'Mag8 - mousefucled' and played like that, and then suddenly, on the 8th round, the admin rcon messages 'fedmouse please change your name' so i open the console, and then suddenly the admin starts having ago at saying that i shouldnt access console, and he gives us a console warning...ive probably missed like, a tonne of s out, when im less tired ill remember it all, the only decent part of the day for me was meeting quite a few ppl there, and finding ppl who talk alot of s (AMeN). well played to ui and erm, im sure ull do good tomorrow.

ant 19:02 5/10/2002	This is one of the worst comps ive been too. Couldnt hear a thing, Windows XP, mouse all messed up. Also the fact that a couple of clans who are playing on sunday who have no right to be playing at all on that day. Teams went out today including mine (bullet.VR) who should be there tomorow to play with the better clans. Im not saying any names but..... clans like 6k and genesis have no right to be playing on sunday as they basically are not good enough [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
iron 19:04 5/10/2002	ur clan as in e2? the only clans good enough to play tomorrow are erm, and ui, maybe tR / bullet as well. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

iron 19:05 5/10/2002	i just cant wait till tomorrow, so many clans will cry so hard, and then youll all understand what i/were saying :[[Comment: Report IP: Logged]
Ripper Rush! 19:05 5/10/2002	if bullet were good enough they would have beaten erm, simple. As for 6K, 2 places were announced for the online quals. mag8 and omg! won these places, then mag8 dropped out. So they then said it'd be between the 2 beaten semi finalists 6K and Disturbed, disturbed then dropped out, so 6K got the place. If you're so annoyed at this why didn't bullet just enter the online quals? [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
iron 19:07 5/10/2002	bullet swapped teams on the 6th round thinking it was mr6, when infact it was mr8, maybe that contributed to their loss? 6K wont win a game tomorrow, their playing i-es then probably clanONE? [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Ripper Rush! 19:09 5/10/2002	yeh iron 6K will have 2 tough games no doubt. But even so, they still rightfully earnt their place like all the other clans. Whether it be through mag8 dropping out or not. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Smiffeh Game2XS.Monkey Magic 19:09 5/10/2002	oh im sorry BlackBelt after winning 11-1 as cts on d2 we were obviously gonna try our best on the worst server ever. 6K are not good enough to be there, end of story. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Rhyzz` 19:09 5/10/2002	haha chriso, u cud do anything, such a poorly organised/planned out tourney. We only lost to erm^ because 3 of us had Mouse accel on and 1 didnt have sound. simple. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	iron 19:10 5/10/2002	honestly, console wouldnt of been a problem, if the admins were there to watch ppl setting up half the time, or if wwcl was installed? i think maybe TT is talking a pile of s cuz when i was standing next to myers desk i read the 'staff briefing list' and in that list it said 'commands that can be changed via console' and name/sensitivitys and hud_fastswitch 1 were some of them, so he must of been typing something else [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	ant 19:10 5/10/2002	our first game we got told it was MR6 and we were like "WTF". so we pld it and won 7-0. We then had to play erm on train and thought it was MR6 again. It wasnt and couple of the guys changed at 6 rounds :(. s happens. Its just annoying how crap the event was and how many crap clans are playing on sunday and the good clans that went home today that shouldnt have. and yes 6k WILL NOT win a game tomorrow, as there configing wont help them at this LAN. UL 6k [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Nick^ 19:11 5/10/2002	And yet still can't sort out something major like MAKING THE PCS WORK AND

		HAVE NO CONSOLES. Too little work, too much cksucking. Gotta laugh at what the admin said to Tamil Tiger: "You're not allowed to change sensitivity, it's an illegal cvar" Absolute class. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	ND` ` 19:11 5/10/2002	The mr6 thing was again, bulls. On our first game we were told we would be playing mr6, fair enough. second game - we weren't informed about any rules changes whatsoever. How they can change the rules half way through a tournament which results in a trip to Korea is beyond me. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	iron 19:11 5/10/2002	I never said they didnt rightfully earn their place, and mag8 were there today, they gave their berth away, didnt drop out, and i dont see how they could of rightfully earnt their place when theyre only going to be there tomorrow because of another group of peoples kindness. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Nick^ 19:12 5/10/2002	"i think maybe TT is talking a pile of s cuz when i was standing next to myers desk i read the 'staff briefing list' and in that list it said 'commands that can be changed via console' and name/sensitivitys and hud_fastswitch 1 were some of them, so he must of been typing something else" They used page-up in console to check what he'd typed, and rooted through the cfg file, everything was clean. TT may be a dumb wigga but he isn't that silly. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Ripper Rush! 19:12 5/10/2002	they dont config.... Only reason you think that is because they're not a recognised LAN clan and yet still manage to do reasonably well online, so obviously they MUST CONFIG! If they do end up playing I-eS and ONE I dont think any other clan could hope to get a decent result out of those games either. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Nick^ 19:13 5/10/2002	"because of another group of peoples kindness." That would be us. Praise us, mortals! [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	VespR 19:13 5/10/2002	Wasn't no one else miffed that we had to pay £13 to get into the exhibition when most of us probably didn't even care for that seeing as we were there for the wcg? I wasn't told anything about that and having to fork out travel fair from leeds etc to get asked for more money when I didn't even give a flying f about the damn exhibition. Next time hold it at a lan centre coz it was se today for all the above reasons.

When we played twisted reality (inept) they said right you got 5 mins to sort stuff out then its on. I sit down and there's no keyboard so I go admin I need a keyboard, he disappears comes back bout 4 mins later with one that has a broken port so I say can I have another, then sujoy finally appears with a keyboard and says to the rest of my team ok you ready we're starting, am like err I just got a keyboard I still need to setup, so my team had to start with 4 men. Even then sens, left handed models etc etc I turn to admin, can I change in console and he's like err no exit and go into the vgui, so after arguing if I press escape I can still only access the customisation part by clicking "play cs" quitting me from the game. On top of getting there at 9oclock and not sitting down at a comp until 2pm overall I thought the comp was pretty disorganised. And aye each PC was different making it hardly "fair".

What made me laugh the most after reading that someone got disqualified for adjusting commands in console, when one clan was playing a player says, "admin can I change m_pitch (or yaw, whatever decreases vertical movement)" the admin says no and the player continues to lower console and start adjusting it and he didn't do anything. Oh and MR8, nice one!!! :/ I'd have rather play a CO match with 15 min timer than that.

VespR 19:19 5/10/2002	lol yeah the women made up for it partially I s'pose but it was something that still wasn't advertised until you got to the front door. Tbh it was a scam, think how many gamers forked out the £13 for the ticket that wouldn't have been there if the wcg wasn't even on. Someone used their head and we're the ones that got caught out. And yeah it did seem to be all about the "schedule". Sujoy may be known as a good gamer and he might be trying real hard to be a decent organiser but as a gamer he should have realised that the conditions we were given were a load of se in retrospect to the standard the tournament should have been.

Posted by Myers at 17:39 5/10/2002.

After a closely fought tournament Uninspired and erm secured their places in tomorrow's finals with victories on de_nuke (9 - 1 & 9 - 1) over Snipers Alley and Twisted:Reality respectively. Expect a full report to appear on this website sometime next week.

Stu of infinity-esports had this to say:

Uninspired look like their former selfs, whereas erm clearly carried by WaZ all the way through

This leaves the lineup for tomorrow as:

- Infinity-eSports
- ClanONE
- Genesis
- Cybercuts2
- Omg!
- Uninspired
- erm

I would hope to see as many of you as possible here tomorrow to support your favourite team. A list of all todays brackets can be found here.

hmmm...i dunno, i reckon some of u guys are being a bit harsh. Firstly, everyone had the problems with the XP mouse se, and i know a lot of people had to play with it on. thats bad luck, but it happens. i eventually asked myers, who was really nice all day to everyone i thought, to fix it for me, and he said nps and said he would sort it out, and it was. i thought all the admins were good blokes, games were all on time, machines were all fair and it was a really good tourney. erm and ui won, and they totally deserved, by far the best there, and gl to em tommorrow.

overall i thought it was a good tourney, and met a lot of new mates, and some old ones too. wp myers and other wcg guys.

sloop 20:38 5/10/2002	these are not excuses cos noc et al are better than us and we would have probably lost anyway. but for those who wonder what it was like for some clans - here we go. one of my clan mates couldnt get his mouse to work on xp - the one supplied was a 2 button - no wheel. other pcs had wheel mice but admin wouldnt get him one. 1st round - we're winning - clan mate pc reboots! - game restarted which was nice - and we lost pistol round. 'by the way chaps this mr12 competition which was reduced to mr8 is now MR6' - i heard them tell Rhyzz etc and they didnt say specifically for this game. this is why they swapped sides after 6 rounds later in the tourney. we just had enough time to sort keys before the game started. i asked an admin if i could use an xp mouse accel fix - he said 'erm hang on' then the game started. imagine playing a game with sensitivity 0.0001 - and trying to deal with it, in game, without a console - as we were strictly told not to use them at all for any purposes. a while later the same admin told me 'doing sensitivity and stuff is ok i spose' there was a loudspeaker playing music from the main stage near my head and with cs volume on max i couldnt make out the sound of my own weapon. a clan got disqualified for using the console. i spoke to the admin who kicked em and he said 'i saw em typing zoom sommat and that was enough for me'. lots of other people used the console subsequently - some were warned and some took no notice and got away with it. most unfair on disturbed imo.

during another game the same admin watched as a team told each other 'when dead' where the enemy were. when asked why he wasnt warning them like the other teams he said 'im not adminning this game'

add this and a whole bunch of other stuff which i cba typing and u get a very s tournament.

even tho we lost we never went to win, just for fun and planned to watch the rest of the tourney. unfortunately, with every1 battling with the conditions the cs could have been a lot better to watch.

the big hltv screens were nice and some of the chicks in hotpants got me jiggy mind you. pld Ui and Erm btw.

hmm, think this has got kinda out of hand. Yeh the tourny wasnt perfect but it was a lot better than several in the past.

i agree some of the adminning (ie. the disturbed dq decision) was a bit iffy but overall i think it was very well run, myers did a good job, but having said this, seevral of the admins were decent (divvur comes to mind).

The pcs and more importantly the network were pretty good, unlike many other lans. i think mouse drivers shud have been pre installed on desktop and maybe a dif OS chosen??

the noise around from stuff live was a bit excessive but didnt seem to have a great effect on anything. Also, if headphones r going to be provided i think they shud be the same type for every1, some PCs had dsp500s while others only had 1 earpiece s things.

Overall i think it was a fairly impressive event, a nice venue, even if the stalls at stuff live were a bit lacking and the food was so fin expensive (stag chilli owns u).

WP erm and UI, both pld very well, (are hltv demos avail?)

take on board some things and the next 1 will be even better, the hltv plasma screens were nice but i think cud have been used better, maybe a designated spectator area, and coverage for more games, anyway, wp myers and thx for free CDs :x

2-structure to many teams not anought time

3-equiptment wake had like 20fps on aztec ffs when ever he fired his gun an my mouse must have been a 5 year old one the logitech logo was nearly worn of an well bens didnt even have a scroll weel

4-space was not to bad for me as i was on the end but i saw others who could not even fit their mouse mats beetween them and the next keyboard it was that tight

5-admins nice guys an girls in a bad situation felt sorry for them

6-Snipers Ally good game will to sort out a day of lan with you some day with our full strength team

7 ohh one more thing the football torny really ruined the vibe for the hltv on the big screens but then was to noisy to have heard much of anything i supose

Consoles were enabled on the PCs when they shouldn't have been, and we weren't /actually/ told that we couldn't use it (TT not having played in a big tourney like this before). Also, other people were adjusting configs via console, with ui players making binds and changing brightness/gamma - this was seen on the big screen. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

as he wasnt actually effecting anything client/server that would effect him being killed or how he kills its what sensitivity he was used too, btw why disqual a whole clan and not just the player? they were more interested in shipping ppl in and out as quick as they can This was out first lan and someone made a mistake on our side prolly shouldnt have used console but it was going on all over, very unfair on us, but we turned up did what we could and i think we got some respect from people that doubted. was nice to meet alot of u.. see ya at cpl without console:)

Is just one of the things i get annoyed with. People saying "omg, the comps only had 60 fps at times" "the mouse has no wheel" "sty headphones ffs"

1: 60 fps at times would seem like a miracle to me, i get 15 fps in firefight so 60 is a major plus for me

2: My mouse is a sty 2 button, no wheel one"

3: On my headphones only the mic works, things with one ear piece working would be ok.

Everyone knows Greg has a head the size of a small planet, so iron, dont act surprised.

"not to matter ... CS is well past it anyway ... full of cheats, wkers, arseholes, etc etc ..."

CS is growing all the time. It aint full of cheaters, wkers and arseholes, they just shout louder than the rest. As with football, you get a few using steroids, being racist etc. but it is NOT the majority. Obviously with the biggest thing of its kind you will get the dicks.

i can honestly say from just being a speccy there without playing a single round there was a load of dodgy stuff going on, i.e; tt being dq'd for changing zoom sensitivity, which i witnessed being behind him and the admong talking a load of bulls about zoom_sensivity_ratio, everyone having consoles enabled by just loading cs despite the fact ASE had -config removed from command line and the console shouldnt have been in the vgui, all/most of ui were changing sensitivity throughout the game using console and tom changed his name using console without a single word from the admin - simply because the admin wasnt actually watching a single one of ui throughout thier entire first game, the thing about someone not being allowed noforcemouseaccel or whatever it was added to the command line.... i saw erm WaZ add this to his ASE command line before his game as well as many other commands and no admin gave a s about that, i saw several people talking when they were dead even with admins watching them and they didnt get warned or anything despite it being against the rules

the first 2 games i watched, the clans had like 15 mins to set up and warm up on a server, ui got thrown into their game with like 3 mins to set everything up, and some spanner constantly going "we're gonna start u all ready" when only 3 of them are in the server and the other 2

		are blatently having problems, and that quote from pun was just hilarious, showed exactly how much that admin in particular knew about cs/gaming/windows altogether, luckily pun did ask a 2nd admin just after though and he just gave a straight "no" at least. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

clans as there is no point and all that would happen is a lots of people who have nothing to do with the day will just start typing Bull s

apart from the bad points look at the good ones we all got to talk to people we know face to face for maybe the first time 2 of my friends came a long way to be there with luck any bad points from the torny will not be repeated and we can finaly start to get some regular lan tornys started in this country but please try an miss out central london again think the midlands would be better for all concerned an thats even with me haveing to drive further as for the tt who slaged of the 4th musketair he's been there done that so get a life an if you got nothing better to do than slag people of go to yahoo or somthing agree with the comments on the noise, it was ridiculous to expect ppl to communicate with 120db of noise in the background. I wanted to use 1024x768 resolution and obviously have 100FPS, however i tried to change fps_max to 100 (requiring the intervention of 4 admins) finally i managed to find one who understood the fps problems and why i'd want 100fps and he said well you can have 100fps in 800x600 on this machine, the previous game i had 100fps in 1024x768!!11.

Another amusing (hugely irritating) aspect of the LAN was that each machine had different mouse drivers installed. I was unfortunate enough to have a logitech mouse and for the first game found a machine with mouseware installed. Second round i was given MS drivers to use which required another 15 minutes to attempt to get an appropriate sensitivity, failed in the end and just got on with it. A few of us had mouse acceleration on despite best efforts, I think tr said they had problems with mouse acceleration as well. Bit of a shambles really, still enjoyed meeting people as it was personally my first national LAN, hope the next ones not so noisy, (also Ant good call on the girls situation their, that vodaphone stand was like a lifeline) [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	TaMiL-TiGeR UFO 00:11 6/10/2002	tt being dq'd for changing zoom sensitivity, which i witnessed being behind him and the admong talking a load of bulls about zoom_sensivity_ratio, thnx shads :) even more proof hehe i thought i was gonna b cussed like xS was, but thankfuly most of u were watchin me play and change my sens :) [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	ManicTwiig Team56 00:25 6/10/2002	i was right behind TT when the admin came round! clearly was a joke how the admin reacted to zoom_sensitivity changed in console.... but when the amdin came back with a band of gimps TT had blocked the console so the admins couldnt access the console to see what had been changed so they got suspicious, but the 1st admin

clearly saw that only zoom_sens has been changed, disgrace!

btw ManicTwigs are stronger than the usual Twig and i carry my team :x

WCG UK CS Qualifiers - Results

Posted by Myers at 17:39 5/10/2002.

After a closely fought tournament Uninspired and erm secured their places in tomorrow's finals with victories on de_nuke (9 - 1 & 9 - 1) over Snipers Alley and Twisted:Reality respectively. Expect a full report to appear on this website sometime next week.

Stu of infinity-esports had this to say:

Uninspired look like their former selfs, whereas erm clearly carried by WaZ all the way through

This leaves the lineup for tomorrow as:

- Infinity-eSports
- ClanONE
- Genesis
- Cybercuts2
- Omg!
- Uninspired
- erm
- 6K

I would hope to see as many of you as possible here tomorrow to support your favourite team. A list of all todays brackets can be found here.

I made tt type console 0 so we could get on with the game in peace as the idiots kept bumping past me to get to him, instead of allowing it being removed they went even more mental.. what fun 🗑️:)

as iron said they had a list of vars that could be changed using the console and i now quote.. from http://www.vga.org.uk/?a=wcg_csrules

	- Approved Console Commands (a) Sensitivity this is very vague so can be left to interpretation, pld rules so why is normal gun sensitivity different too the awp zoom sensitivity? the admin of the match went way overboard, as soon as he seen a console he shouter disqualification, now console commands are allowed, I WAS NOT LISTENED TOO by sujoy or myers when they called me over they just said your out, there was so much wrong with this whole thing, from pc's not working to our match starting when we didnt even have a player on the server, it was a factory for getting ppl through it didnt matter than people had to spend upto 80 pound for 10 rounds of CS.. to them its all about the business. I wont complain anymore but i do feel hard done by and an appology from vga would be nice [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
ManicTwiig Team56 01:39 6/10/2002	^^ totally agree with Geordie on that one, zoom_sens was in the fluffin gui, saves time doin it in console than quitting out then goin back in [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

XLNC/RUDEBOY 07:51 6/10/2002	All I can say is - by the sounds of it i'm glad we never went now. Would have been nice to meet everyone in real life that knows us online but thats about it. No way was it worth travellin all the way from Scotland in a dinky car with 4 other lanky bs for what - 10 rounds of CS! and paying for it! What a farce that is. Looks like we had a lucky escape tbh :> [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
RUDBEOY 07:53 6/10/2002	Oh yeah congrats to ui and erm [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
Myers Saviour of UKT UKTerrorist 08:14 6/10/2002	not even gonna bother tbh. I know myself and the other admins did a very good job. Noise we have no control over. When people make a comment like 'my pc had other mouse drivers installed' well that's cos the other clans before u installed those mouse drivers that's hardly our fault gotta sort today out bbl [Comment: Report IP: Logged] acidduck 10:01 6/10/2002	"it didnt matter than people had to spend upto 80 pound for 10 rounds of CS.. to them its all about the business." Such a poorly organised event on saturday, Didn't display when/who we were playing, what maps. Didn't even tell us the server. Amoungst a load of other problems they were more concerced about getting it over with. I was sitting at the end of the row and i cud hear the admins talking "ILLEGAR CVAR, I WANT THEM DS'Q" Do they actually know what they are talking about? Just the general attitude of the admins was s, when i tried to explain it he just relplied with "u broke the number ONE rule your out". (using console) Other teams were warned and yet we go? Also nice one Myers + the yank admin saying "Nothing personnal" whilst we walked away. We may not be the most liked of clans but this was disraceful, It cost me around £100 for the trip i enjoyed the social side of it, but the gaming side was horrific.

Nooooo, we got so close to that hotel room =). We had a great day yesterday, and at the end of it all erm and ui definitely deserved to win.(Bom u fkin own :D). I agree though about all the problems there. To me it seemed about cramming as many clans (i.e Stuff Live entrance fees) in as possible and not about providing a quality environment for cs...We had as many problems as everyone else regarding mouse accel, refresh rate,(admins u ever heard of nvidia refreshrate fix?). and the noise problems. I'll leave u with a couple of amusing pics. cya next time guys and gl to all the clans tomorrow.

well it just surprises me after all their experience that they still underestimate how long games will take and problems that people will have....MR8 is just the best ever...

other problems were that even with max brightness and contrast on the monitor, loadsa areas of the map were just pitch black for me. i ended up just shooting randomly into the black area cos i knew someone was there but just couldnt see properly.

	CuCuCulexus 15:15 6/10/2002	those pictures of the cramped keybaords/mouse were a bit extreme, they were probably the only ones like that, me and wicked were cramped but not that badly.. we just moved slightly across to make room, COMMON SENSE [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	shads theb0g 15:27 6/10/2002	if no one says what problems they have, how are the events meant to get better in the future and the problems fixed so people have a much better time, or are the admongs psychic behind that stupid mask. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	CuCuCulexus 15:32 6/10/2002	then they should bh where the admins would take notice, i doubt they would come hear and listen to all of this [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	decrepit Croydon 16:53 6/10/2002	true shads but he does have a point, the majoriy (not all) of the stuff on here is ppl moaning or wuteva, if they wanna make useful comments, theyre more likely to be taken seriously if they email/pm myers/sujoy/whoever. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	shads theb0g 05:40 7/10/2002	i saw one guy being told he couldnt edit the command line in ASE, whereas i saw WaZ happily edit it fully under an admins stare, bit random?
