CPL Qualifier finals begin

Posted by ryano at 10:44 6/7/2002.

The Northampton IT Centre is playing host to the CPL Qualifier Finals as I write. Infinity eSports at this moment are beginning their first match with erm. I managed to catch up with Noc | Ex before he went into his first match:

"I'm happy and confident, we've been doing a lot of practises at Virtual Realm Bath. We're hoping this time in a fortnight we'll be packing our bags for Dallas."

Expect more results and reports later in the day.

MuffinMan.. 12:21 6/7/2002	One of the biggest CS events in the UK and it is not even broadcast over hltv. I mean they could have quiet easily hosted it themselves surely since the internet would hardly be used if Ian was being played. Or they could have least asked a company to host some hltv for them. AHhh well GL all teams. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
