BWCSL Week 3 Division 1 Results

Posted by Ripper at 21:56 10/9/2002.

With 2 games being postponed, only 3 games in division 1 took place this week in BWCSL. Here are the results:

- ONE 13 - 9 6K
- erm:cs 13 - 4 SA
- FCC 13 - 10 VETS
- dNC v SO19 Postponed
- Ne.UK v NS Postponed

6K put up a good fight in the first half against ONE, winning it 7-5. However in the 2nd half it was extremely one-sided, MadSpunk kept 6K in the game with a brilliant individual performance, but quality play from Keiju helped ONE to get the rounds they required. VETS pushed FCC close, but it wasn't to be, and SA were unable to keep up the form shown in previous weeks, with erm:cs finally managing their first win of the season.

MadSpunk Last Chance 22:07 10/9/2002		4v5 when we were 3- 0 up as CTs, led to 3 - 1, then 3- 2 as sol was still lagged, eventually we got Dim in but we had no money and we were panicing. They got 5 but eventually we got our act together to win the rest - 7 - 5 to us. T started and TS went dodgy, and we generally played crap. bh on BY started cl_flushing every minute and couldn't move from spawn a lot of the time. ONE played a very nice CT half, 8 - 2 to them. Its a real shame, if you watched HLTV you can see the frustration in our faces when sol lags out, Joe flushes through both halves basically giving us 4v5 throughout the whole game. Oh well gg rematch sometime clan ONE on LAN (who are now in my books #2 in UK) :D [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Rogue1 23:13 10/9/2002	I'm aware that the servers tonight were... for want of a better word... horrible. Every new update to VAC pushes up the CPU requirements for a server and it's getting to the point where our servers are struggling to cope. The only div1 game unaffected by this was the 6k/ONE game, which was played on my own clan's server, in an attempt to alleviate the problems. I've asked BW for some extra hardware to be thrown at the problem and hopefully we should see things improving very soon. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	DArtagnan Infinity-eSports 14:42 11/9/2002	Umm my headphones come free with any sty cd sony player or walkman or something. They're worth less than a fiver. I use them simply cause i find the sound quality better than any of the expensive headsets i've ever tried. When i was in noc, i actually didnt use the plantronics cause i didnt think the quality was as good as my little ones.

I found i could hear footsteps more clearly, so i kept them.

With the widescreen thing....in Korea i noticed nearly all the russian M19 team doing it, so i tried it. What i found was you can see everything in 1 viewpoint. On big 21inch 19inch monitors which they use at WCG and at CPL, i play kind of close to the screen, and on big monitors i cant see the top and bottom of screen unless i actually move my eyes to look up and down. Widescreen means everything is in 1 view point.

There you go, it's not as some say "it makes heads fatter" cause it actually makes them smaller.

Well all the top Russian Q3ers but their keyboard on their laps. It originated from polosat1y breaking his arm, and putting his keyboard on his lap, so he didnt have to hold up the weight of his cast. All the I337 russian q3ers do the same.

At home i very limited space to fit on a narrow desk a funcpad and a keyboard, and i use the left hand side
