Final layout and maps announced for Intel Masters

Posted by Dev at 15:18 12/12/2002.

As stated in the headline, the final layout etc... Has been released for the soon to be happening Intel Masters event on the 21st of December. Without any further ado here is the line up:

CS maps available: Dust2, Inferno, Aztec, Prodigy, Nuke, Train, Science

Semi-final map: Aztec

Final map: Science

Seedings

- 1. Infinity e-Sports
- 2. DNC
- 3. One
- 4. OMG!

Unseeded:

ERM:CS, Uninspired, Illuminati, North and South

Group A

Infinity-esports
OMG! erm:cs
ui

Group B

DNC
iLLu
N@S

The matches for the competition look something like this:

Group A

Infinity e-Sports vs OMG! - Science
ERM:CS vs Uninspired - Dust 2
Infinity e-Sports vs Uninspired - Inferno
OMG! Vs ERM:CS - Prodigy
OMG! Vs Uninspired - Nuke
Infinity e-Sports vs ERM:CS - Science

Group B

DNC vs Illuminati - Train
One vs North & South - Science
DNC vs One - Dust2
Illuminati Vs North & South - Science
DNC vs North & South - Inferno
One vs Illuminati - Prodigy

A lot of people will be very relieved to see that the science map is only being used twice in each group stage. The tournament can offer a lot more now in my opinion. One thing that does worry me is the slight skill difference between group A and B. Although all the teams attending are of high quality, group A seems tougher than group B.

lol, no prizes for guessing which group is the hardest.

and yet again our luck prevails....not Infinity on a custom map, why cant we ever play the bs on a normal map :D

aztec doesnt count cause its se btw

Negotiator Clan ONE 15:28 12/12/2002	sarge, isnt it easier to play ies on a map they know as well as you do or a map like nuke/dust2 were they would own u silly? [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
vip Online Multiplayer Gaming 15:29 12/12/2002	ok i have a few issues, the late notice of the maps has really annoyed us considering that i was told by nick that there is NO chance of a change of map from the science only. Also the groups seem well biased, why are one seeded below dnc, this is reflected in group A being alot more tough. Again look at the maps for the teams, ies play science 2 times, while ui dont play it at all?... where is the logic there. we play erm on prod, ies on science and ui on nuke.... NICE INTEL [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

Weebull 15:32 12/12/2002	If they'd seeded ONE higher than dNC, it wouldn't have mattered at all (unless you mean that omg! should be rated above dNC ;)) as they still would have gone in the same group. imo they should swap ui with iLLu, and at least make it so the map distribution is equal. Ns.BJ 18:03 12/12/2002	mmmm science mmm joy mmm we now have 4 ppl i think planning to get injurys before sat ala british sprinters ;p p.s and yep we prepared so well its untrue the amount of pracky tis a strain, tho im proud of our secret plan, no1 look at science till we get there else we wont go ;x [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
Dr_Evil` 18:04 12/12/2002	The map cycle should be changed so every clan has to play it once and only once in the group stages. That way everone playes it but no clan gets to have more experience on it. With it being the map for the final thats a big consideration. The seeding are ok, since swapping ONE & dNC will not do anything since they will be in the same group anyway. Group stage followed by single elim means clans get at least 3 games each, I guess double elim after the group stages would be idea but its all about time constraints. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

why is everyone saying erm will finish 6th? to finish 6th they would have to beat Ui, I-eS or omg!.

Do the math.

If they lose all games they will finish at best 7th

- 1) ONE
- 2) Ui
- 3) I-eS
- 4) dNc
- 5) omg!
- 6) Ns
- 7) erm
- 8) iLLu

heres to wishful thinking! :o)

DArtagnan Infinity-eSports 19:45 14/12/2002	I think this could potentially be the closest lan for sometime. Instead of being a 1 horse race, it could be between 3 teams. I'd say I-eS, ONE and ui would all have the ability to beat each other, though I-eS would win a higher % of matches against the other 2. Depending on how the pistol rounds swing (in ies we never seemed to win any except in dallas) could see any of those 3 winning it. Will be a good tournament. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
