	Landen 17:50 28/8/2002	We're currently after sponsors to help fund our LAN play. Unfortunatly being a student, with parents who arent too well off, i cant afford to spend on average £30 on train tickets to get to LAN events, many other fcc are in the same boat. Jedibh has less money than me ffs and I dont have any. I spent over £70 going to the CPL Qualifiers, over £100 quid at i12. Cant afford to keep doing that without sponsors. We have to get somewhere online before sponsors will even look at us. We beat ONE fair and square. I use 100% default config and never touched a cheat in my life and I came top as CTs. Im just as good, if not better at LANs. And I know for a fact all of the fcc team that played ONE use pretty much default. Certainly within CPL limits. Clearly ONE werent at their best on the night for whatever reason. However we out played ONE that map, they had poor tactics all their T tactics were rush here or there. Which we handled well. We worked hard to perfect tactics for that match and it paid off. Yeh sure this was a good result for us, ONE are a top UK clan and we didnt expect to win. But we can play better, we still made mistakes in that match. Just give credit where its due, yea? Hopefully be playing with some of you guys at LANs soon. Looking forward to it. Righteous- 22:04 28/8/2002	Well tbh it was all Keijus fault. Have you seen his aim ? 20/30/7000 rate ownage ^^ No Tactics is right we have none really. What tactics we have are no where near good enough for a top UK Clan. We WILL sort this soon. We have 8 members so its never the same team every night which doesn't help on your TP obviously. Did I say we worthy of a sponsor? Nope, said we're looking, we always are. I said we have to prove ourselves online more, and LANs too. ie, we havent proved ourselves to worthy of a worthwhile sponsor yet.

Apologies if i came across arrogant or whatever, just got annoyed with certain peoples comments.

Anyway, me gonna shut up, dont wanna ruin a good game with meaningless arguing.

fcc- -JediBitch 16:50 29/8/2002	This is why i despise the UK cs community... A clan the ppl believe r not 'decent' beat a 'decent' clan,and we get comments like 'asif that wud happen on lan' etc. All the so called pro cs players have heads the size of hot air balloons. Why cant u just say 'wp fcc that was a good result vs a very good clan' ? Instead we just get abuse,and the worst thing is,its more abuse than when we play BAD. As far as i can see the euro pro clans look down on the UK purely because of the attitudes displayed on forums such as this one. I reaslise many of u may be children,but theres no need to act like it. Strikes,maybe we arent good enuff for sponserers,but we have beat a million and one clans who do have a sponser.we r trying to become a better clan,and i think we r on the way,we WANT to attend lans but its just not possible,cos quite frankly we r all broke ass students lol. Having a sponser wud obviously help us alot. quite frankly im so happy i stayed with fcc and not joined a 'pro' clan (lets just pretend i was good enuff) because the mentality of most clans really is poor. u look down on clans that ur better than,then u make up some excuse as to why they might get a good result,may it be cheating,cfg hacking or just blind luck.

I hope in the future we can contend with the top clans,and i hope we can do it on lan.

Hope to play vs u soon

Why does everyone get this impression european pro teams look down on the UK?
They don't, simply they know nothing about goes on in this community, they don't know what goes on in these forums and s. They know as much about us, as we know about their communities.
There's just about as much bhing in every other community. Though in Sweden all the top teams know each other from lams, and see each other like every week, so there's very little arguments between them. Also they've like all played on the same team at some point.
