Chris0 Leaves Infinity-eSports

Posted by Fluke at 18:52 29/7/2002.

It's been announced that Chris0, organiser/war arranger for Infinity-eSports, UK's number 1 clan (6th at the CPL P4 Summer Championships) has decided to quit. I posed a few questions to the man himself:

I suppose the main question is, why have you decided to quit i-es?

Chris0: I was bored with being organiser/war arranger in Ies, over 14 months with 4K/Ies after Jonny 1st asked me. Wasn't fun anymore.

Was this a sudden realisation, or had you been thinking this way for quite sometime?

Chris0: Getting bored had been coming for a while, but around CPL time I thought, that it was enough. It was still enjoyable, but getting tedious.

Does this mean you're taking leave of the Counter-strike community in general too? Can we expect to see you in another clan sometime?

Chris0: Nah, I'm not leaving the CS community, I may even be on more than I have been in the past month or so. Not sure if I'll be in another clan, but you can never say no. :)

Finally is there anything you would like to add?

Chris0: Hmm. Had a good time with 4K/Ies, but I want to do something new now, more likely organisation side but for another clan hopefully, and maybe even some part time cs'ing too. :)

I'll miss Stu and Greg a lot. :) Stu 'da carrier' Harriman , and even though Greg does support arsenal him too. :)

UKTerrorist wishes Chris0 good luck in the future.

14 months eh, this news post kind of reminds me of that web IQ test where it judged how thick you were by how long you sat doing the pointless, unrewarding, never ending test, 14 months eh, woo.
