by: blackop

Magic - ONE

Score: 26 - 22

Levels: nuke, nuke, dust2, dust2

Magic won clan ONE in this exciting and long waited final. At first map ONE had worse ping, but still they made one hell of the fight. Read full report.

First level: de_nuke

Line UP:

ONE: Righteous, Keiju, Strikes, Barely Legal, KhAoS

Magic: skaarup, Stanis, s0kke, MoNo, AtomAlf

ONE starts match by moving slowly to inner hall, and there they rush to upper bomb with 1:20. ONE rushes, and kills whole Magic team quickly. Magic is making an eco, which makes it easy for ONE to kill, atleast you think so at a start. ONE timeouts one of their player, Strikes, and Magic kills KhAoS. It wont save Magic, as Righteous gets angry and kills AtomAlf, s0kke and MoNo, while Keiju plants the bomb, and Barely Legal kills remaining guys.

Magic makes another eco round, and ONE makes a run from outside stairs down, and plants the bomb on the lower bomb site. There they kill most of the Magic team, and bomb explodes. 4th round is starting and both teams have guns. Keijo opens frags and takes MoNo out with ak47 as a first blood at innerhall. ONE starts moving from there to the ramp, and rushes ther at 1:43, but as they get in there, AtomAlf & Stanish frags 3 ONE players. Righteous ills skaarup under the ladders leading to A bomb spot, but s0kke quickly takes him out too. The Strikes comes and kills Stanis, and AtomAlf kills him with awp.

5th round is starting and ONE is not making any eco rounds. They make fullsized rush to upper bomb, and Righteous kills MoNo & Stanis as a start. skaarup kills keijo, KhAoS plants the bomb, and s0kke frags Righteous. Barely Legal kills skaarup, and s0kke kills him and Strikes, as AtomAlf defuses the bomb, and arranges ONE an eco round with deagles. They make it on 6th round and rushes to upper bomb via outside, and MoNo kills Strikes. Righteous kills MoNo, Stanis shoots keijo, Barely Legal & KhAoS drops 2 more, and AtomAlf kills both of them, and as Righteous comes, he shoots AtomAlf, and in 1on1 situation, skaarup vs. Righteous, skaarup wins it.

Yet on 7th round, ONE rushes to ramp, and on there Stanis shoots Strikes with colt. ONE moves in, and AtomAlf kills Righteous with awp. Then Barely Legal gets some guts and rushes there and shoots AtomAlf and MoNo, while Stanis shoots Keiju. Then Barely Legal and KhAoS kills s0kke and skaarup, ad while KhAoS gets the bomb, Stanis shoots Barely Legal, and KhAoS rushes on the upper bomb while Stanis is on the lower bomb, and as Stanis rushes, KhAoS kills him, and gets ONE at 4-3 lead position.

At next round Magic is doing some eco round, and looses it. At next ONE makes a rush to ramp again with flashes & smoke, and goes in, where Stanis shoots KhAoS and Barely Legal at a start, but then Keiju wakes up and kills Stanis and AtomAlf with ak47, while Righteous goes to bomb site and plants it, but MoNo is waiting and kills Righteous few seconds after planting the bomb, and skaarup & s0kke kills remaining ONE team, and defuses the bomb. At starting of next round, ONE makes a run from outside and gets killed, and is making an eco at 11th, which they loose too.

Final round is starting at this first quarter, and ONE makes a rush to upper bomb. There s0kke kills Righteous, Keiju shoots skaarup, s0kke kills Keiju & Barely Legal, KhAoS kills s0kke, and AtomAlf & Stanis takes care of remaining ONE team, and ends the first quarter rounds 7-5

Conclusion

Well, as i told this match was long waited, and got over 700 spectators. At first map, de_nuke ONE had worse ping, about 50-100, and magic had 40-60, so i think that did effect the game on magic's server. After coming to ONE's server, where both clans had more equal pings, match got more exciting and ONE gave everything they got for this match, and it was a good job, even they did not win the map. But that's only 2 rounds, GG!

Since this was the final, i want to thank everyone for watching this whole CUP, every admin for their job, etc, and see ya soon on the spring cup!

Someone give me a tip how to get a better cs:er...

I mean tbh yeah it would have been sportsmanlike to chose the regular pinging server for ONE to play on as they pinged fine on ONE's. However when u have to make a choice between sportsmanship and the cup I can sorta understand why they did what they did. Im a big fan of ONE and reckon this is a small set back in a long CS reign to come.

About the other danish clans, the danish scene is more even than ever before at the moment (More than five rather even clans). How 4k.cs is leveled in relation to these clans, I can't say. But if one of the clans can give 4k.cs a hard time or even beat them, they all can.

GG ONE and good luck at Clikarena. I will cheer for you when you play (except against danish clans oc), if you promise not to whine after a loss :)

yea i predicted whining, because when ONE politly asked if we could delay the game because of ISP problems, Magic said "nope, we don't believe you have ISP problems, you are lying because you want more time." once again bad sportsmanship, luckily for us we had proof to show the admin.

That's why i knew you'd do everything in your power to play an unfair game, because that's what you're like. Win at all costs, even if the game is unfair pingwise. I guess that just shows that you're very very sad to goto such lengths.

never mind the ping shit :] wp magic! hope to play with you next season :]

Yeah sure sounds like ONE are whining. The fact of the matter is that Magic purposely chose a server that gave ONE a severe disadvantage during the match. That's bad sportsmanship and bad for gaming overall. Furthermore, given the result on ONE's server, where pings were equal...I feel sure that the majority of the top clans in Europe regard ONE as the better team. Where is Magic's invite to Clikarena? Ah, lost in the post it seems.

no gonzo, we weren't late. 30 minutes before the game, we were in server negotiations, which lasted a very long time. ONE were not late whatsoever. The reason the game kicked off late was because of magic being argumentative.

Yeah.

Now im waiting for magic to whine about stanis's ping 250 on nuke and their 20 choke on ONE's server.

"3 years later."

As i have been told and read, ONE was about 30 minutes late and the admin therefore decided (in lack of time) that each clan should pick a server. Magic picked 1, and so did u.

I can't see it's magic's problem that you guys are late. Especially not when u got 1 week extra to prepare yourself in.

Actually, i can't see why the servers wasn't pre-arranged for such an important match? 😊 There is always this big server issue when it comes to matches between 2 EU topclans, it can't be that hard to arrange the servers in time 😊 well let's be honest, we tested 3 danish servers, 2 of which we pinged fine and the final 1 we pinged 110. Skaarup, being very sportsman like said "oh well if we're not playing both maps on danish server, then u can play on the server that you ping 110".

anyway, we don't really care, it must mean a lot to you to have to beat a clan at a huge ping disadvantage.

What's cool about the ONE server when it gives nice lagspikes of choke 20? You can't see that from a scoreboard... Fix LAN finals next time as warmup for the EC finals 😊 yep it's strange they played this game in these conditions. Congratulations to ONE for their fairplay...

If this was any EC game with big names the game on the first server would NEVER have happened, very poor show.

CB proves once again to be useless, pings even on ONE server, look at the pings on magic's server, 60vs100 isn't fun or fair, surely in the warmup the admins should see this and rectify the problem, i.e. find a new server.

ONE wins map on even ping, magic on uneven.. go figure.

Sigh...a neutral server should have been chosen. Very bad way to decide a pretty important cup. You'd expect better sportsmanship from a clan such as Magic. Afterall, the reason for these cups is to decide who is the better team not who had the better circumstances during the match. A win for Magic that means little as anyone not Danish would agree that the game should have taken place on a server where both teams pings were equal. The result on ONE's server was, where both teams pings were pretty equal, a fair reflection on both the teams. It would have been nice to see both maps played there. Magic are good enough to hold their own against ONE in an equal ping enviroment...unfortunately they didn't seem quite as confident of their performance against ONE and so opted for the ping advantage...this speaks volumes. I'm biased of course but I think my view is shared by many. A win against the UK's second best team is a good trophy for Magic...but unfortunately this game reflects badly on Counter-Strike as a professional, organised...sport? Maybe one answer as to why this is so is the average age of gamers...maturity, I think, is what is needed here. Maturity beyond their years. Sadly, given the typical gamer this looks to be wishful thinking. Enjoy your win Magic...the team certainly is good enough for this honour. I just wish it could have been under better circumstances. Nice try ONE. You did your country and fans proud under difficult circumstances.

Pings where fine for both teams, I think that has very little to do with the outcome of the game. Otherwise GG to both teams for an exciting game.

"At first map, de_nuke ONE had worse ping, about 50-100, and magic had 40-60, so i think that did effect the game on magic's server"

And I had ping 250 ?
