Poog To Play For 4Kings At WCG

Posted by Ripper at 18:15 9/10/2003.

After 4K's loss of m0rph for tomorrows trip to Korea, poog has filled the gap and will play alongside the UK's best as they compete in the WCG finals. After poog's solid performance at UKT5 for Disturbed it'll be interesting to see if he can handle the step up.

Apparantly many other top players offered their services, but poog "was in the right place at the right time" according to Myers. Good luck to poog and lets hope he can help 4K do themselves justice at WCG.

Or perhaps its just plain old logic and reason dictating to me what tts people like you are. It is actually just a game played over the internet by teenagers, no need to get so passionate about it. But the remark wasnt even directed towards you, why would you get so offended? Oh wait, I get it. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

No actually just the once due to people salivating over the WORLD-REKNOWNED importance of the WCG. I would rather pay £500 and have a great time in Korea than pay £300 and play computer games all week, thanks.

"It is actually just a game played over the internet by teenagers, no need to get so passionate about it."

You didn't say it, you implied it ^^ :)

And I wasn't wrong, as I told you before cs didnt begin in v1.0, 4k/bh were not the best team throughout the betas, several teams beat them several times, including on lan, dont remember the details, deeply sorry about that :D

I'm quite sure the whole thing doesnt revolve around playing games all week, have you seen the resort they stay at?

But does it really matter if youre staying with 4 other computer game players, and for a great deal of the time have to spend playing/preparing/sleeping for the tournament?

Again: I would rather spend the £200 more and have a great time then spend £300 on a week based around playing computer games. That doesnt make me "cool", just a rational person who knows how to enjoy themself...

amarc 20:10 9/10/2003	Yes but Offspr1ng your point was: "I am disagreeing with the first part of the quote "4K/i-es have always been the best UK team". In the early-ish betas 4k, or bh as they were then, were by no stretch of the imagination the best team in the uk. So saying they've always been best UK team is nonsense, despite how many people believe it. " My point was... "#34 surely saying they have always been the best in CS implies it is from the time 1.0 came out, i.e. when CS was released properly, and not in the beta versions that allowed copious exploiting. Also how would you judge "the best team in the UK" back then? Online matches? Dont make me laugh." To which you never responded. To expand upon my point, calling 4K the best in the UK at the game since it came out surely does imply the best team since its release, i.e. not in its beta. See: http://dictionary.reference.com/search?q=beta [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

I mean seriously, you've produced some pictures of horrific looking women and yourself looking like the latest thing in football hooligan fashion, but where are these supposed chicks you pick up on the regular? You claim to not be a geek or nerd yet you spend time, and I mean continuously, commenting on UKT. What are you doing right now? Playing CS? Hitting F5? Waiting for your bh to get over to yours so you can have some imaginary hardcore session? Or are you wking over your latest BY demo and 25-0 score? Wait I know what it is. You're staying in tonight cos your shin still hurts from your football accident 3 weeks ago and your bh is on her way over to rub some nice massage oils into your leg. Poog To Play For 4Kings At WCG

Posted by Ripper at 18:15 9/10/2003.

After 4K's loss of m0rph for tomorrows trip to Korea, poog has filled the gap and will play alongside the UK's best as they compete in the WCG finals. After poog's solid performance at UKT5 for Disturbed it'll be interesting to see if he can handle the step up.

Apparantly many other top players offered their services, but poog "was in the right place at the right time" according to Myers. Good luck to poog and lets hope he can help 4K do themselves justice at WCG.

amarc 22:43 9/10/2003	My comment wasnt aimed at Geordie in particular, just the elitist attitude some people cultivate as if being an online geek carries some sort of real status and that we would all love to know whats really "going on". It's good to see people like GaZ/amarc who have posted multiple times on this thread on a gaming website have lives while the people who posted once and then went off to do something more productive apparently don't. If we are the geeks f off to your magical life outside the computer and stop posting you halfwit. At the end of the day "real life" isn't all it's cracked up to be, that's why we play games for fun. You are missing the point Im making: I play the computer game to have fun, nothing more, nothing less. "Real life" is great, but boring at times, hence we have forms of media like games, music and tv to entertain us. My point wasnt calling gamers sad at all, it was simply belittling those with an elitist online attitude. oh and amarc, why come on here and slag off poog for "selling out"? Its just a fing game at the end of the day, its not gonna harm distubed in the slightest and he get to travel to korea for jack s! o/

You lose the arguement, go onto some other random sogamed forum post that no one gives 2 fs about.

When did I slag him off for "selling out"...? My point is that if he didnt pay (which he didnt) then fair play to him, hes earned it and Im sure will play a damn good game and have a good time. If someone payed £300 on the other hand for the "privilege" of playing computer games with some relative strangers in an online country, that I would have a problem with.

I didnt bring the SoGamed post up, he did, which surely implies that infact he DOES give "2 fs about" it. I dont see how I lose the argument when you post unfounded, speculative rubbish while all the time taking my points out of context.

Anyway, good luck Scott.

amarc, there are exploits now, there were exploits in betas, that point is moot. It would only hold any weight if m4/noc/ui had used exploits to beat 4k at lan, which they didnt.

We were discussing whether 4k were "always the best team in the uk" not "the best team in the uk since v1.0". You cannot dismiss all the competitive cs prior to v1.0 simply because thats the only way to make your argument remotely persuasive.

Glad i was able to clear that one up for you! :)

Poog To Play For 4Kings At WCG

Posted by Ripper at 18:15 9/10/2003.

After 4K's loss of m0rph for tomorrows trip to Korea, poog has filled the gap and will play alongside the UK's best as they compete in the WCG finals. After poog's solid performance at UKT5 for Disturbed it'll be interesting to see if he can handle the step up.

Apparantly many other top players offered their services, but poog "was in the right place at the right time" according to Myers. Good luck to poog and lets hope he can help 4K do themselves justice at WCG.

Frankyboy Stalk Confront Engage Eliminate 11:10 10/10/2003	LOL GaZ- you're blatantly a f*ckin illiterate retard(use www.dictionary.com) if you don't know what it means.. You're most likely a virgin as well and the only p*ssy you've been near is the one you came out of.. If you don't play CS anymore do us a favour and f off and post on Semi Pro footballers forum or "Virgins in Kavos" forum. TBH I'd rather spend 1 day in Korea than go to that stinking s dump Kavos again - I doubt you'll even manage to get laid over there!! Rant over :) P.s GaZ- you're a c*nt though I'm sure you knew that already! [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	them since then on LAN in the UK. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

PHB 01:01 11/10/2003	dNC never beat 4k on lan. They beat ui who had just beaten 4K, and they lost 13-11 to them at the CPL Winter Quals or something [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
Offspr1ng 09:23 11/10/2003	ok, at that point in time 4k weren't best in uk either way. Going by amarc's logic the fact he hasn't replied means he admits he's wrong? :) [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
