Team UK Fail to Qualify

Posted by deebo at 18:13 13/5/2003.

Team UK have failed to make the next stage in the CB Nations Cup IV. Last night's game between France and Hungary, which ended in a 42 - 6 win in France's favour, spelt the end for our lads. With one win from three games they finished 3rd in group C behind Germany and France. Disappointed co-captain Ripper had this to say:

Tough group, France game decided it all and it just wasn't to be, I think we'll be seeing most top clans follow suit next season and not allow their players to play in the nations cup.

In the other groups, Austria, Spain, Sweden, Denmark, Finland and Estonia all managed to make it through to the next stage.

it's amazing how without even saying anything I get drawn into a heated debate...

Basically yes mine and chris0's team did get out of the group stages, but we were also able to pick practically any players we want. Obi & Ripper were not able to do this as such they were put at a disadvantage. But these days no matter who's picked the team is going to be more or less the same.

I have to agree with Ripper that the prestige of the uk nations competition has practically died and in future more teams will refuse to let their players compete in the league.

As for a governing body, very tricky to implement, something that many ppl either can't be bothered or just don't have the time to be involved in.

How about next time move the selection away from the "UKT little circle of friends" and maybe we'll do better.

Team UK Fail to Qualify

Posted by deebo at 18:13 13/5/2003.

Team UK have failed to make the next stage in the CB Nations Cup IV. Last night's game between France and Hungary, which ended in a 42 - 6 win in France's favour, spelt the end for our lads. With one win from three games they finished 3rd in group C behind Germany and France. Disappointed co-captain Ripper had this to say:

Tough group, France game decided it all and it just wasn't to be, I think we'll be seeing most top clans follow suit next season and not allow their players to play in the nations cup.

In the other groups, Austria, Spain, Sweden, Denmark, Finland and Estonia all managed to make it through to the next stage.

im just wondering why a clans CL wudnt want his players playing for our nation its not like they can pick up an injury whilst playing cs,or have to travel long distances to be jet lagged.

is it just me or is it the stupidest idea ever?

I have no complaints with the team selected, I think both captains did a good job with the options they had.

I did think at the time that the Shaq decision was a bit silly,
but I was proved wrong, as always.

I think 4K is just the first of many teams who will withdraw their players from selection, and not just inside the UK.
Perhaps the other countries have their selections restricted
in future seasons.

As for all this s about getting a bad group, if you can't beat them in the group stage, you not gonna beat them later on after qualifying in a different group. Can we
