Katori Choke 15:40 16/5/2003	ED gives us regular games between pcws and csgn(up and coming savage league)matches. They are always lighthearted and with clans who, like us, just wanna play for laugh now and then. We have never bragged about being top of it, or asked for any recognition for being top, we just are atm thats all. Hardly our fault, or grounds for serious criticism imo. ain't been before how can you pick fairly who goes other than who signs up first. Obviusly a high rated clan like ONE were gonna be picked but as for the rest how can you choose fairly who goes and who doesn't other than by whu signed up first.

	Dev theb0g 16:55 16/5/2003	Risse, i was never saying OJS shouldn't get invited just saying GLtC have been to the first 2, have points and its not 100% a merc team, just had to bring in a couple of players to make up the team. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	akujii0r Infinity-eSports 17:04 16/5/2003	omg take one of the top teams in the world to the wire and you think an insignificant merc team even mattered/bothered to them? [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Fox ClanNEW 17:05 16/5/2003	Dev, gltc have 2 players from their last LAN, OJS have 3 from UKT1 and also have points from that event where we beat them 13-3 (ish). We just brought geo and rhyzz into the team because they were available and tom's away in australia. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Dev theb0g 17:07 16/5/2003	Fox, why does everyone think i dont want OJS there? I NEVER SAID THAT, EVER!? I just was backing up GLtC because someone said why should GLtC be going. Kirby is a different matter as i don't know their team etc... I'd of

		liked to see OJS there, i never said they shouldn't be invited. Just backing up GLtC that is all... [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Toomy 17:07 16/5/2003	gaz if you swear some more it might make people pay more attention. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	akujii0r Infinity-eSports 17:08 16/5/2003	they do help organise the event so lets give em some allowances but i do think their would be a lot more CLANS standing in front of OJS in pecking order if they didnt go anyway [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Fox ClanNEW 17:09 16/5/2003	btw i understand the problems with so many teams signing up, i don't agree with how you eventually picked some of the teams but nm. Either make the next one a 2 day event or hold online qualifiers for the bottom 8 teams. I'd quite happily play any of those teams in the bottom 8 listed for a place in the tournament (even online) [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Az RemOte.uK 17:10 16/5/2003	firsty. aG r top blokes..... they had probs geting to that lan due to member issues or summant dont really know but cant hold em back for that init, as for this quote Dace 15:40, 16/5/2003 ED gives us regular games between pcws and csgn(up and coming savage league)matches. They are always lighthearted and with clans who, like us, just wanna play for laugh now and then. We have never bragged about being top of it, or asked for any recognition for being top, we just are atm thats all. Hardly our fault, or grounds for serious criticism imo. As i've already said, gl to all involved, it looks set to be a quality event. explain ur topic in channel Topic : f f Welcome to Choke™ f f 1st in Enemydown since Oct 2002 f f Friends: #vets #n-r #aka.cs #clan-rar f f NO advertising / NOT Recruiting #pure-hosting competition

Anisty 02:04 17/5/2003	What i love is that everyone seems extremely irate about ukt3 and yet myerth/rich cant be arsed to comment on this. It seems to me that since rich has started working for the vga he has decided that now he is where he wants to be he can throw his morals and devotion to organising fair and brilliant activities and teams out the bloody window.... what the f are you up to rich sodding defend yourself. [Comment: Report IP: Logged] t0m 02:12 17/5/2003	fair and brilliant activities [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
Toomy 02:32 17/5/2003	rich has nothing to defend himself against, it's not like this is the only ukt lan that'll be held before secondary strike. almost all of the top clans are going so they can have a shot at the eswc and/or secure their place in secondary strike. after this lan i doubt you'll see one/4k/omg/lc go to more then 1 of the remaining ukt lans because they are 100% sure of a place. now why don't you clans that are so desparate to prove/play whatever on lan just wait for one of the remaining, i'm sure rich'll grant lots of places to the lesser known teams then.

so now i'm being flamed for not flaming others?...lol

right my dear anisty

about 42 teams signed up for this ukt lan, over twice as many as we can accept. Because we were only just able to get this organised we don't have time to do online qualifiers and still allow ppl to save money by booking their trains/flights/accomodation early. I have nothing to really defend myself against, whatever teams i don't pick will flame me, it's a lose-lose situation. If i pick the unknown teams the better teams ask "WHY THE f DID THEY GET PICKED OVER US???" if i just pick the good teams the lesser known teams say "HOW THE fING ARE WE ABLE TO PROVE WE'RE GOOD IF WE'RE NEVER ACCEPTED TO A UKT LAN U ELITIST PRICK!" As a result people are destined to hate me, which seems unfair considering i'm the one taking the time to organise these events in the first place, would you prefer there were no ukt lans at all?..and the only cs lans u would see would be this summer and winter.

As i said earlier for ukt4 we're looking to see if it's possible to have a 2 day event with 32 teams within the given time. If not then we will switch to online qualifiers for these events, if that is still not possible then it will have to remain as 16 teams.

As for the VGA comment, yes my work for igames uk takes up a lot of my time as it should do, but considering this is like the first event that i've done since i started working for the company how can u make that judgement? also i'm not where i want to be, i always aim for something higher :)

The problem as always is that the teams that are not accepted are always the most vocal, especially on the ukt comments.

Any questions let me know

Well said myres. After all, its only a GAME. Your not going to die or catch cold if you dont go to ukt whatever. Most of these comments have been unnecessary, its a game, its a lan, enjoy it. Wish the people who are going good luck, and if you're not going, dont moan about it, and flame other clans because "were better than them", just wait till the next one. easy.

I'm sure we'll get a place next time - this was the first time we've all been able to get time off work though to be able to come. Might not be able to make the next one. Ah well nm, just one of those things.

Thx Sunship but tbh we kinda appreciate now the reasons "most" of the teams were picked. We managed to finally sort a date when we could all get to a lan as a team but on this occasion it wasn't to be. We'll just do our utmost to get timeoff next time round and keep our fingers crossed again.
I for one am now relieved tbh as i agreed, in dumbass haste, to pick lok1 up from Bangor on the way which is 155 miles from my house then another 125 miles to the lan, a sweet 7+ hour drive. Meaning i'd be leaving at midnight Friday night :P Would've been just like playing cs at home....half asleep like usual :P

because [quote] ...Did you watch overtime at all Genics? You saw HLO with a LAN ping, which is how they play all their games. Usual CB matches are played with 1 match on each team's server, but I couldn't be expected to believe that a team would not take the advantage of low pings vs high pings and instead play with a higher ping throughout which is what HLO did - and all credit to them.

If you had played one map on each server the scoreline would have been massively different, on that Matrix server you'd have seen probably a 22-2 or some such score. Clearly you were jizzing yourself over Craig so much (this isn't intended as offence to you btw Craig, just pointing out that Genics is up your arse so far he could tickle your stomach) that you didn't notice all of HLO's bullets not registering, or the fact that throughout barring Clint's 35 ping and Craig's near-50 they had treble the pings.

I'm sure as a pro CSer like yourself Genics, who put on his omg tag halfway through the match, you should know what happens when you play on a server based 500+ miles away over a sea - pings don't necessarily reflect the lag on shots/the enhanced recoil you get. For a team who play LAN every day playing with 60+ lagging to the UK is a completely different experience, and would be disconcerting. Several times through the match you could see bullets not registering plainly for HLO, notably some AWP shots made by MegatoN/Sui.

Then we get onto overtime on the Matrix server. Oh dear. HLO become comfortable with their pings/recoil/register and start taking you to pieces, and it really had f all to do with HLO using inferior tactics or whatever. You as well as the whole CS community knows that had a map been played on Matrix's server omg! would have been absolutely raped.

Don't forget we're talking about HLO, a team who won SEL 2, beating esu in the final, beating teams like xP, gmpo and GoL on the way. Are omg at any of these teams' standard? Let's face it, you've never beaten 4K on LAN no matter how many lineups/times you play, and 4K would have one hell of a fing struggle to beat those teams. On LAN the match would just be fing funny, you'd have been torn apart. I'm not disrespecting the quality of your players (I actually only think DArt would be good enough for a league such as SEL), but you aren't at the same standard: you don't practise on LAN, your roster changes regularly, and you don't have as much experience all in all.

Do you think you'd beat esu too, Genics? Laugh. If you think otherwise you're quite clearly blinded by some unbridled passion for your team.

The only reason the match was drawn was because of the pings and sty register HLO had, and even Craig said that his register was better on Matrix's server. Playing on a server across a sea which has crap connectivity and is one of many servers running on an overcrowded box - fun! Or not. "Nuff respec" to HLO for being such sportsmen, clearly they knew they'd have a disadvantage but thought omg's would be even bigger so agreed to 2 maps on that 4K gaming server. Never seen anything like it.

Oh, and m0rph trying to pass himself off as brorjace. Good one... [/unqote] [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

4: Those ne one give us a chance of getting one round on the score board in our first game ? those ne one think bar 1 or 2 clans outside the top spot that any other team has a chance of winning it ? so we wont be dissapointed when we get mauled by the so called provisional winners ?

5: We are very aware of our apponents. we know they are a class act as of we are aware and very much aware of the top 8 seeded clans ,

6: If any one has any question they would like to ask me then you know were to find me , till then I hope to see you all soon , gl to everyone involved

tbh I just talk like that from my irc days and yes I can speak english , tbh I know people have set opinions of us and that will not change , however as not one person in England or the uk will ever contemplate that we would give a decent expose of ourselves against 4k (or possibly whoever else we face) I dont think me posting here will change any ones opinion on us or make any one take us seriously , and my 5 points were just stating that A no one gives us a chance and we have nothing to lose as there is no presure on us and B I dont know myers he does not know us and I just wanted to say that any s people have heard about us is untrue and I also wanted to say good luck to everyone involved now I know I did not fixate all my points on 1 topic as a kind member has pointed out , however I think he is delusional ?

Any way Like I said macca I dont think ne 1 will take us seriously so what is the point in trying to talk bulls and tell people we are this and we are that ?

thanks once again , Ne way excuse my punctuation and literacy skillz as one person has allready pointed out I am not quite adequate in that area. To the rest take us as you want to take us but we will try and come over and play some
