DoZ Anti-saviour of UKT 21:21 17/9/2003	I play in ED now. I've attained a higher level of play than I ever dreamed possible. In true Bruce Lee style, when the time comes to frag I don't do anything, my hand moves all on its own and clicks away. I have reached a state of unconscious competence whereby everything I do is on a mode of autopilot truely uninterrupted by emotion or attempts from other people to interfere with my game. A state of flow so perfect that I may have to be autopsied and psychoanalysed to aid the future of sports as we know it.

		Legend, martyr. It's all the same to me [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	N3M- endeffect 21:31 17/9/2003	id say qtp has just as much right in the "pro" tourney as i-es and zebras tbh For example i bet if fcc went they would be in the pro tourney even tho qtp has already beaten them in some tourney. Zebras is in pro tourney and why ? because they have familiar faces ;(just goes to show it isnt how u play its who u know..or who knows u [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	DooMeh Lite 21:32 17/9/2003	or how much ass u kiss [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	NukeD virtual Junkies 21:33 17/9/2003	qtp should be in pro but..... For example i bet if fcc went they would be in the pro tourney even tho qtp has already beaten them in some tourney. they all did have s pings :/ was a joke tourney [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	N3M- endeffect 21:36 17/9/2003	its still a tourney, and i aint kissing noones ass its just a straight up fact what has zebras,Legend,2s2p,Puk-Kai,o:i,s7 and forsaken did that teams in the other group havent.

I picked qtp because i believe their strongest in that group although theirs some teams their who have good organization and could prove hard to overcome (i.e SFAL,SA,res and harmless)

Its just a fact that they have picked such teams on the basis of popularity imo.

yes but as this is the first yime the pro and am tourney is being used then who is where doesnt really matter.If qtp deserve to be in the pro league then they should at least come top 2 in the amateur league and zebra's will come last in pro league if they shouldnt be there.

End of the day the amateurs have the better deal because whoever wins it also gets to play the following day so lets just see what happens at ukt5 then for the rest of the following ukt events the seedings and positions will be much easier for myers to do also with the amount of "new arrivals" to these events its got to be hard for myers to seed correctly so this is why i think how well known ppl are in these teams counts.

anyway gl all especially to 2sexeh and qtp cu all there..

ohh and gl to enigma

N3M-
21:31, 17/9/2003 id say qtp has just as much right in the "pro" tourney as i-es and zebras tbh For example i bet if fcc went they would be in the pro tourney even tho qtp has already beaten them in some tourny.

we all had 10 million ping,but the real issue is that Square was playing,hes a dirty wallhacker,and got kicked from qtp a week after :)

	[z]Fred zebras 08:12 18/9/2003	lol, such cky cu*ts (IeS). Rhyzz, I dont remember every single result from all the UKT lans but from what I can remember theres always been upsets from the clans that are overlooked. Like when ui pulled GG into overtime, when SCEE pulled ONE into overtime, when s7 beat omg!, whenahhh id be able to give some more if I could remember, but I'm sure that at like nearly every lan played theres upsets against the 'big3' which you think will cruise past everyone. And Geordies (uhh think it was him who said it) right, its about experience and nerves, whcih is why 4k practically ALWAYS pull away in the overtime situations when playing in uk tournaments, and its why SK pracitcally ALWAYS pull away in the overtime situations when playing in US/EU tournaments. But if a team is able to gel together and get some good sh*t going in their bootcamp then there is no reason why they cant perform in their first tournament (eOL). [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Russ 08:20 18/9/2003	nah qTp will win, altho they lost to digital heresy, who "werent good enough to attend" funny that init. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	DoZ Anti-saviour of UKT 08:22 18/9/2003	Anything CAN happen because for the most part the UK's teamplay is at a pretty basic level compared to the highly skilled international team. Sloppiness, lack of communication, lack of spontaneity and the like all contribute to too static a game style relying on people's ability to frag rather than truely work as a team. On the other hand, if a team can look and take on board the difference between them and the better teams they could improve overnight. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Roguey 08:53 18/9/2003	resonance for the win! [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	name slips my mind) coming to the lan or u using someone else? [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
PHB 10:20 18/9/2003	Don't forget when ui beat 4k! That was quite the upset :) I can see zebras doing rather well on lan, they have a player that owned all of monkeymagic on lan dontcha know! But seriously these guys are gona do a lot better than their seeding :) [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
Ki55 Shoot First Ask Later 10:23 18/9/2003	Why would you be laffin macca? We dropped down to Amateur from Pro simply cos we thought we'd get to play a lot more games on LAN. We also beat 69k (former Total Gamer with a couple of amendments?) 16-3 at last UKT so I don't think it would be that hilarious if another team beat them to/in the final :) [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

To pigeon hole the amateur competition like people do with the pro competition is ridiculous. "professionals" tend not to make the mistakes that can pivot games, silly mistakes that us down in the amateur division are more likely to make. I think itll mean therell be a diverse and intense tournament on the Saturday, good luck to everyone involved im sure itll be a fun event.

Pimpboy feo 13:18 18/9/2003	for a non serious "fun" clan choke do take the jibes against them about ED rather to seriously if you just got on with it and did your thing and then quietly beat all these tossers that take the p at LAN then you would get 100 x more respect from ppl as a clan. Take my advice let your skill do the talking and ignore them all cos at the end of the day the ppl that take the p out of you regulary are just jelous of what you got going at choke being a nice tight friendly bunch of guys and a half decent clan to boot. With all the clan breakups and movment of players etc.. choke can stand proud as one of those clans that has players that know what loyalty means not many can say that. [Comment: Report IP: Logged] when we formed our clan all those eons ago, we were a bunch of good respected players, who had just come out of two clans that had split up within a week (fusion and kb3). Because most of us had been playing for a very long time already, we wanted to emphasise fun in the clan and our members are old and get on well with each other.

However, during our rise higher up UK CS, we've had to put with being called cheaters, which then changed to being called configgers, which then promptly changed to being called online heroes. Because some of our members have jobs, wives, lives... etc, it has been hard in the past to get a LAN team together. And of course people have been taking the p out of us being top of ED since the dawn of time.

We go about our own merry little way, we still play for fun, we've even started playing DoD with our CS team for a laugh and we're not too shabby at that either. But because we play for fun does that mean we should just sit here and take the endless amount of abuse that gets thrown at us? I'd say no other clan in the UK has had anything like the amount of stick we have in the past.

I hope O:i do well at ukt because they are good lan players, they just have a couple of bad maps like aztec, which they tend to falter on, which makes people doubt their lan capabilities, but the guys are clearly good and deserve more respect than they get sometimes.

suppose ill post my thoughts on teams in both leagues now os am bored.

Pro - League I think ONE will take it but with a new team then its not gona be easy for them. My money is on disturbed for 2nd place i think they are ready for a big showing at this one.

Dont know who legend or zebras are but am sure they prolly deserve their place in the pro league.

I think AnNuM is right i-es's final placing will all depend on how much they practise and prepare for the event.

With the big teams weaker than normal due to new players and lack of practise disturbed/choke/section7 and forsaken can all go well beyond their normal placings

Beware optical illusion this time round i know they usually dont do all that well but something in my water thinks they are gona shine at this one.

Amateur - league Lots and lots of teams that i either dont know or are kind of LAN newbies. That not meaning they will be crap but nerves and stuff will play a big part as usual.

SFAL/pro-gamer/qtp and maybe SA are got to be your favourites for this event but i think its quite open really. DH are newcomers and can rock the applectart same as meatyballs and enigma. Overall a well balanced amateur league imho with everything to play for and i think it will be a far more exciting league than the pro one =] [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Pyroux 2seXeh 2perfoRm 14:01 18/9/2003	LOL i can 100% garrentee that ies will own ukt5 :) i put my life on it... As for am league, if qtp have there strongest team out they will win...if not maybe SFAL [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Choke MaT Choke 14:01 18/9/2003	yeah we still have our moments b0sh, dunno what happened the other night, but it doesnt sound good. I would say that our previous 5-6 games vs 69k/total Gaming have always been in good spirit and a laff + you're all sound guys. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	[z]Fred zebras 14:07 18/9/2003	yeah when are the seedings gonna come out? I hope that its 1. ONE 2. dist. IeS maybe deserve to be seeded 3 but anything higher would just be stupid. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	[z]Fred zebras 14:09 18/9/2003	Macca, Vir (nl) wont be coming over for this lan. Fred, sluggeh, KaM, hih1 and silence will be bootcamping the weekend before and then at ukt5 we'll have 6 there (the 5 mentioned + fez). Seeya there dude :o) [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Crappy Super Breasts 14:18 18/9/2003	Mat you are right Choke do get alot more verbal from all directions then most clans. When I played against a few of your players at i17 we got totally spanked but had a really good laugh. The admin was a kok and after fing up a pistol round cos one of our players dropped and we had lost the admin said "wtf is the point, u r gonna lose anyway" the choke guys stuck up for us saying that's not the point, its FUN :D

At the end of the game they came over to us aswell and had a giggle at all the mach10 and tmp'ing that both teams were doing. I doubt many "pro" teams would to that to an unkown clan like mine.

Although I gotta say that up until a year ago fcc got alot more abuse than choke have imho. But fcc are all cs, so it's deserved!!

Well then I apologise it wasn't me who recieved the PM, though I do know of other comments made but water under the bridge i had a giggle mercin with CC with u guys the other day. My only point is I dont think any 1 of us round here are angels really, we all make comments from time to time. Fair play uve had more than ur fair share + by the looks of it undeserved but ya cant say with hand on heart uve never done the same.
