Carb theb0g 22:51 21/5/2003	I thought I'd "do a Thorin" and make some predictions as to the games that will be played as I see them. Don't take any of this to heart anyone but these are my thoughts. 4K vs aG - 13-3 This match will probably be either a whitewash or aG may get about 3 rounds. I can't see them getting anything more off of 4K.

O:i vs conclusive - 13-11

I'd say conclusive have a chance to beat O:i....will go either way possibly but O:i have a more 'established' team. Not seen them LAN though so will be interesting.

Xtra vs GLtC - 13-5

Xtra should take this match quite easily, even having lost duck and gaining AdY who may or may not have gelled into the team properly. I can't see GLtC putting up much of a fight.

iM vs Kirby - 13-6

imminent will be too strong for Kirby in the end but I can see them taking some rounds off of imminent. Probably 6 at best.

ONE vs Pro Gamer - 13-3

As with the 4K match vs aG, I cannot see this team taking more than 2 or 3 rounds off of ClanONE.

fcc vs SO19 - 13-11

I can see this being a relatively close match. fcc didn't perform too well at UKT 2 so will be looking to improve on that and SO19 could put up a reasonable fight. Hopefully Cy can show us some silky skills and fcc will go through here.

ui vs tR - 13-8

ui are a good LAN team and can play some top CS but have been pretty inactive recently. However they have some skilled players and I can see them winning this quite comfortably.

OJS vs SCEE - 13-10

I am uncertain as to who is playing for either team here. I know SCEE are a reasonable clan and OJS are a merc team but I have a feeling the mercs will take this match but it will be close.

Ok that's my first round predictions. I'll show predictions below for the matches in the 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th rounds that I think will be the results according to each match.

Depends on the two merc team's outlooks on the tourney really. I know tR can put up a solid performance online, not sure about their LAN ability etc. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Carb theb0g 23:08 21/5/2003	Exactly Callisto =] I'm not bothered what people think of my predictions. Will be fun for me just to see if I get any of them right =E gl to all teams involved though [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

23:12 21/5/2003

Here are w00kies Predictions, these are not predictions this is what will happen.

1) Kirby esports united intel
2) SCEE
3) Pro - gamer

First round

4k - aG 5-13

4k will win the pistol round then a flurry of mad eco's and great MAC ten usage will secure aG the win

o:i vs Conclusive 13-4

oi will conclusivly beat Conclusive

Xtra vs. GLtC 13-6

GLTC MAY have to ring up Choke for a FEW EX commands which may help them gain the odd round or 2

iM vs. Kirby-eSports.uk 0-13

Without a shadow of a doubt the Kirby-esports.uk.nigeria -esports united intel.. will daddy the s out of iM.

ONE vs. Pro Gamer 0-13

As much as i like one i cant see them beating Pro Gamer, pro gamer are of course pro gamers so i dont see one even getting close to beating this team of pro gamers.

fcc vs. SO19 0-13

FCC (CAPS) will bottle it so19 will show how solid they really are and of course show them how far the rabbit hole goes.

ui vs. tR 13-7

i see ui edging this one slightly due to the fact that tR have a twisted perception on reallity.

OJS vs. SCEE 0-13

SCEE's extensive training at

	LANS and there extensive training on jolt 10 servers will prove to become victorious over OJS. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

Katori Choke 09:29 22/5/2003	gl and hf all in attendance. Thx Lewis, MadSpunk, for your words. I can't believe how much st we get just cause we have some fun in ED. ED gives us some good lil games every so often against some good fun clans, and we've made allot of friends in the ED community. We are playing in csgn and Savage as well, where we dont do too badly, result wise. We've never claimed to be anything we aren't and we are now trying to get to lans as a team, which should be fun. This aside, most of the Choke team are regulars to lans, we just haven't been able to attend any together as a team. I do not say this as a result of being wound up by the likes of wookie, but merely to hope this will save a few kids some time posting daft unjustified posts that make themselves look foolish. Time that could be better spent playing cs and getting good at it.

Lozzeh 21:37 22/5/2003	I know you bunch of tts will just falme me, but tbh I dont care. Why on earth have 2 merc teams been entered ahead of the numerous proper teams that have applied? I know one reason why cough Ripper^ cough. If by any fluke one merc team did qualify for ESWC, it wouldn't reflect very well on the UK seen now would it. Instead making us look even more amature than we already are. Plus, I doubt they'd have the commitment to go all the way with their original members.

Secondly, I realise that everyone deserves a chance, but again why have SO19 and aG been put in ahead of other clans? SO19 only managed 1 rnd at i15, and aG are all lies online and didn't turn up to their last LAN.

This is gonna be another joke, with no teams challenging anyone in the top 4/5 and no new/legit teams getting any kind of a chance

[Comment: Report | IP: Logged]

Xplo^
22:04 22/5/2003

Well maybe if you came up with some decent points rather than chatting s people may not flame you.

SO19 have been around for a long time and i'm guessing that's why they've been picked, and tbh, who really gives a f about i15? Does anyone ever take the CS tourney seriously?

And as for aG, they've only been around for 4 months, alot of the members i know intimately..ugh i mean personally, and they are a sound bunch of lads. Maybe the UKT staff thought it would be good if they got the place because they are good online and show that they can do the same on LAN, especially considering they missed their last one. And I still can't believe people still go on about how they missed the last LAN, get fing over it? They had member problems, if you don't believe them go cry a river about it, instead of whining like a retard about how unfair it is that they got the last place. They're gonna get boned by 4k no doubt, I just hope they do respectfully in the tournament as a whole. Like I said tho, I hope they turn some heads and I wish them best of luck for their first LAN.

God do people not get the point of WWCL? It's for online use to try and enforce some kind of standard so it's more of a level playing field. It doesn't make any attempt to change your updatrate or cmdrate unless you specifically make it do so. It enforces interp and the other commands that can be used to exploit hitbox bugs and the "player skin being infront of the actual hitboxes for the model" problem.

WWCL does f all to rates as a whole unless you set it up to do so. i-Series tournaments are for a laugh, if someone actually got stroppy cos it wasn't on a LAN that no one really cares about (placing wise) then they take it a little too seriously. It's up to the players competing and the spec of their PC as to what they set their rates to. WWCL is also a waste of space seeing as it's a metamod plugin, which until recently meant that hitboxes were skewed allover the place. Look for the reports on it, there's plenty about.

However people that attend i-Series LANs should be asked to put their rates up, especially if they are 56k or low bandwidth at home. But to be honest who gives a f. People shouldn't get so defensive about this kind of s. Seems to me that people need to put themselves above the people that flame and make digs at their clans / players and just not take the bait. How can people expect the scene to improve if every fer lowers themselves to the same level as the prick that insults them in the first place?
