ge0ff 15:39 25/5/2003	anyway, has choke become the new flavour of the month now? the point is, the fl.e are ok, so im sure they'll enjoy moderate success, failing this, some experience at a well organised LAN. I dun think anyone has a doubt about 4kings NOT winning this, but it should be gud fun for other teams to play against them, to see how gud teams play. my cat's whiskers tickle me [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
Obi Clan ONE 15:46 25/5/2003	how are you underestimated Osi? uve never been to a lan before, have someone who has admitted to cheating in the past(radon), and have not done anything worth mention in any online leagues, i think its spot on since every other team has lan experience in some shape or form [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

every clan/player is new at one time of his life. u think heaton put his hand on the mouse for the first time, and instantly eco'd all of 4k?

for all u know, fl.e could be the next NiP. It seems unlikely, but nothing is preventing them from doin it. The difference between clans like eoLithic, SK and 4kings and certain UK "pro" clans i could mention, is that that the UK clans don't care.

i say gl to everyone there

Obi, whats the point in all this abuse. Osi only meant it as a joke.

We have only been going 4 months, and this is the first time since then weve had an active team who can actually get time off to go to a lan.

As for the cheating, oh dear... you honestly think im the only player out of all the clans going to ukt that has tried a cheat? Im sure if you checked various wonids on certain servers sum names would pop up. Just cos i admitted to using a couple on a pub server, that makes me worse than people caught using diff alias'.

So if you wanna flame us along with most of the other people, can you just wait til after UKT when we will either be s or

		"turn a few heads" as someone said. Sorry if im moaning, just its kinda of annoying we try not to be "pro gaymers" always give a gg thank you and end up getting flamed in the process. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

Carb theb0g 23:50 25/5/2003	lol at this ongoing thing between Graham and radon and cheating. Get a room you two =] radon is quite right though Graham, there have been plenty of top level CSers in the UK and abroad that have cheated both on public and in clan games. Harriman being the prime example when he was cheating in ui. Same with landshark and AnNuM. But all of those players are proven LAN players and radon, you are not. Which is Graham's point. Anyway aG will get trounced so it's best for their members if they all stop talking the good game and settle on playing it on the day. Don't talk the talk if you can't walk the walk. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	Carb theb0g 00:23 26/5/2003	I meant that Stu had apparently cheated in ui and Zac and Mike were caught on publics and had cheated in other clans. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]

	akujii0r Infinity-eSports 10:35 26/5/2003	isnt that why he wont play for ukteam? cos everyone thought he cheated till he proved himself at lan <o/ ringpieces such an old, repetative and boring argument [Comment: Report IP: Logged] kirium 12:09 26/5/2003	Carb i think Landshark turned up a pb violation in a ui pcw/match or whatever. AnNuM had a wallhack installed when playing on a public, but he says he wasnt using it.. :) lil was kicked out of # (when on trial i think) after turning up a pb violation. annum's one is common knowledge, and alvin told me about the lil incident. dunno how true the landshark one is but i saw a screenshot floating around on supernick's geocities website. [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	kirium 12:13 26/5/2003	oh no, zac wasnt a pb violation, someone had connected to his harddrive and found an ogc folder and taken a printscreen of it or something. so fu*k knows about that i doubt he ever cheated :) [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
	Rhyzz Nocturne 14:27 26/5/2003	who cares i bet every good player has played with a wallhack at some point, so what does it matter. I remember always backing up Annum when every c said he cheated, but in a prozac game once he got the worlds dodgiest kill on me, jumping round a corner and having no idea that i was there, either super luck or hackhack :)) love you mike

Smittins 18:30 26/5/2003	well the history of clans would probably go back to pre-historic cave men, forming groups for use in hunting and gathering resources. If your interested in knowing more about the history of clans, you can buy my audio book. "The History of Clans - Volume VIII" ge0ff knows his stuff! [Comment: Report IP: Logged]
