Note that although the people who ran the HLTV for the event may not be as 'experienced' as some of you out there and they did a good job in getting all these demos. I'd like to thank Xtra.ZaG for sorting the HLTV demos and iM-TeppuM for helping me gathering links and so forth. Enjoy.

The admins were voluntary and they knew nothing about how to run HLTV, they did as well as they could, and most games are there, the games without any demos are ones requested by the teams to not have HLTV.
